		before the project start date. If time off is given during the project under no fault or request of IMC then the per-diem will still be paid per IMC Employee unless otherwise discussed and approved by an IMC Manager or Myself . Nothing will be expected of any IMC Employee to be purchased for any project without being discussed and approved by an IMC Manager or Myself . All Per-Diem will be invoiced during the regular scheduled weekly invoice.
	Expenses Option B)	All expenses will be paid by the Client from the time any IMC Employee is dispatched to a project from their home until the project is completed and they are back at home. This will include but not limited to "Hotel, Meals, Fuel, Special Tooling needed, parts or any other purchases that are required by the Client to fulfill the project description.	Invoiced Weekly
	Expenses Option B) Cont.	Specific requests for such items will first need to be discussed and approved by an IMC Manager or Myself . All expenses will be Invoiced weekly with the regular scheduled Invoice. All receipts will be kept and submitted with invoice for that week.
Invoicing	Industrial Maintenance Contracting LLC	prefers to Invoice on a NET30 basis for all hours and expenses up to that point. This keeps everything in good standing with both IMC as well as the Client so work can be continued. If this cannot be accomplished, then Arrangements can be made for other terms before any IMC Employee is dispatched to a project. Please let us know in advance so these matters can be discussed.	Invoiced NET30
